Sip Shop Hooray showcases a rotating collection of local artistry, each thoughtfully curated to complement the boutique's vibrant and welcoming atmosphere. As you sip and shop, discover expressive works that invite you to linger, connect, and experience creativity in its most inspiring form.

5. THE WERK GALLERY: 2210 1st Ave S., St. Pete, FL 33712 – (727) 289-8685 – In our Main Gallery, an exhibition of Tarpon Springs artist Concepción Pooou Coy Tharin's delicate, ephemeral Pikb'il weavings and wearables will adorn walls and mannequins alike, with several others suspended from the ceiling, creating an immersive textile experience. Also on view will be a video delving into her Mayan heritage and artistic process as well as a mock studio where gallery guests will be able to see her backstrap loom and materials, and where she will lead a workshop for those interested in learning the Pikb'il tradition. In our Gabinetto Segreto, two mural-sized paintings by Tampa artist Carlos Pons Paz will engulf the small 90 square foot space, creating an axis mundi for contemplation of the cycles of life and personal transformation. Also on view will be several of his small sculptures made of fabric and clay, suggestive of votive figurines, and two of his newest paintings that "carry the clarity, focus, and intention that come with" his own transformation from emerging artist to working artist.

13. MOREAN CENTER FOR CLAY: 420 22nd St. S., St. Pete, FL 33712 - (727) 896-2529 – Jennifer Schumacher Waller: in between On View: February 14 – April 4. Morean Center for Clay: 420 22nd St. S. “My work explores moments of transition that lie in-between fixed states—those liminal places where meaning wavers and blurs and certainty dissolves. The moments that hold the fragile interval after things fall apart. The spaces of transition are places of pause, reflection and perception that reveal the feeling and sense of connection and separation. The in-betweenness of things. I use clay as a material to record the quiet moments and lived experience, moments of stillness, the space between and the connections that bridge them together. These records and relationships explore issues of uncertainty loss, memory and place. I am drawn to the presence of what once was there, the fragility of a moment and what we choose to hold onto and release.” 10/10 Wood Fire Again: 2025 Winter Wood Symposium Exhibition - On View: January 10 - March 7: In December of 2025, potters from all over Florida and beyond congregated at the Morean Center for Clay to sacrifice their sanity at the altar of the kiln to offer their efforts to the ancient art of wood firing. Through the collective struggle and triumph, marvelous ceramic artworks have been produced for your viewing pleasure. Four kilns, forty artists, and countless logs later have made for one spectacular showcase. Witness not only the variety of artistic styles, but methods of firing. Indulge your senses in the decadent ashy drips of the Anagama; the fiery coal crust of the Train; the slick sheen of the Oil/Salt; the juicy rind of the Groundhog. Join us this January in reflection and awe.

We hope to see you all there!

14. SOFT WATER GALLERY: 515 22nd St. S. (Suite F), St. Pete, FL 33712 – German-American artist Anja Palombo and Cuban-American artist Juan Alonso-Rodriguez celebrate the interplay of curves and angles, whether expressed in three dimensions or in two. Both embrace an elegant minimalism, each drawing on references and experiences specific to their upbringing. Palombo's European heritage has fostered a love of understated matte bisque finishes in her ceramic work, which often takes cues from the stylized forms of ancient Cycladic and Mycenaean sculpture. Alonso-Rodriguez's striking work references architectural and botanical influences, as well as lingering memories of his childhood in Havana. Both create works that are deceptively complex in their simplicity, and that provide a perfect complement to sophisticated interiors across a broad variety of design styles.

14. NANCIE NORMAN - ArtsXChange Studios - 515 22nd St. S. (Studio 102), St. Pete, FL 33712 – I am an oil and acrylic painter. I use a lot of texture and color as I paint landscapes, animals and flowers. I am known for my fish paintings which I describe as balanced chaos of color and movement.

CENTRAL ARTS DISTRICT

25. MOREAN ARTS CENTER & GLASS STUDIO: 719 Central Ave., St. Pete FL 33701 - (727) 822-7872 – S|ART|Q Artist Collective: Day Dreams: Through a diverse range of artistic mediums—from painting and sculpture to mixed media, photography, and installation—Day Dreams aims to evoke an immersive and thought-provoking experience where reality and imagination intertwine. NAWAFL: A Journey Through My Imagination - A Journey Through My Imagination is a juried exhibition of artwork by members of NAWAFL. Featuring painting, photography, ceramics, glass, and more, this show demonstrates the depth and breadth of work being made by participants in one of the oldest art organizations in the US. Rebecca Sexton Larson: Where Leaves Remember Where Leaves Remember is an ongoing body of work presented as a sketchbook that explores the relationship between nature, memory, and transformation. Rooted in the premise that leaves, like people, retain evidence of what has passed, the project explores how memory operates as a layered and evolving process. Through drawings, photographs, and text fragments, the work considers how marks and materials record the interplay between permanence and loss. Artists in Residence Exhibition - The Artist in Residence Program at the Morean Center for Clay aims to enhance and further the educational experience of clay artists seeking recognition in the professional realm. The AIRs at MCC are comprised of individuals with either their bachelors or masters degree in art who are interested in working in a studio setting to continue to foster their growth as a ceramic artist. This exhibition highlights their recent work.

26. THE STUDIO@620, Inc.: 620 1st Ave. S., St. Pete, FL 33701 – Production Playing February 12-15th: What starts as a polite academic conversation quickly unravels into something far more charged. This February, HerStoriesTold brings The Niceties—the sharp, timely play by Eleanor Burgess—to The Studio@620. Set in a university office, The Niceties centers on a meeting between a progressive white professor and her Black student that spirals into a fierce, deeply human debate about race, power, history, and who gets to control the narrative. What begins with good intentions exposes uncomfortable truths about privilege, identity, and the limits of civility. Smart, unsettling, and often darkly funny, The Niceties doesn't offer easy answers—but it invites audiences into the tension, the questions, and the conversation we're still learning how to have. Join us for a production that challenges assumptions, sparks dialogue, and lingers long after the lights go down.

27. FLORIDA CRAFTART: 501 Central Ave., St. Pete FL 33701 - (727) 821-7391 – The Florida CraftArt Members' Show celebrates the exceptional talent of artists from Florida and across the United States. This stunning juried exhibition features 48 artists working in fine craft media. Their work demonstrates technical mastery, a strong artistic voice, and thoughtful design, offering a dynamic cross-section of today's contemporary craft field. As a non-profit organization, Florida CraftArt relies on the generosity and support of its dedicated members to provide accessible arts programming throughout the state. This exhibition stands as a testament to their contributions, and we extend our sincere gratitude to the hundreds of members whose commitment makes it all possible.
